LOWER INCOME HOUSEHOLDS FAMILY HOUSEHOLD INCOME REPORTING WORKSHEET (140% AMI)

Section 214(g) of the California Revenue and Taxation Code provides that property owned by nonprofit organizations or eligible limited liability companies providing housing for lower income households can qualify for the Welfare Exemption from property taxes for those units whose family household income does not exceed the limits stated herein. Pursuant to section 214(q)(2)(A)(iii) or (iv), for property that is eligible for and receives low-income housing tax credits pursuant to Internal Revenue Code Section 42 or owner of property that is a community land trust (CLT) and whose property is leased to a lower income household. subject to a contract that complies with the requirements of Section 402.1, units shall continue to qualify for exemption if the occupants were lower income households when they first moved into the unit, but whose income has subsequently increased to no more than 140 percent of area median income (AMI) ("over-income" tenants).

Promptly complete, sign and return this statement to the manager of the organization that provides the housing so the organization will have time to complete the form that must be filed with the County Assessor to claim property tax exemption on qualifying units in the property.
